

SOUTH AFRICAN ASSOCIATION OF HOMES FOR THE AGED

PROJECT 2018-2019: COAT OF MANY COLOURS

2018

Subtitle

Promote teamwork and taking pride in what you can achieve.

Each Retirement home must make a “Coat of many colours” and sent to SAAHA head office.

SUPPORTED BY SONJA SMITH ELITE FUNERAL GROUP

R6000 WINNING PRIZE

Be creative and collect a piece of material from each resident and get a seamstress or the like to piece the coat together. It needs to be warm and it needs to be in a good state and someone must be able to wear it.

R3000 SECOND PRIZE

You can use any material or design. The Theme originated from “My coat of many colors – written and performed by Loretta Lynn from the movie “The coalminers daughter”

R1000 SECOND PRIZE

The coat may be any size as long as a human can wear it (an adult) and not a child. This will be a fundraising exercise in order to assist homes where we can. Each of the 3 winners will also receive free complimentary membership for one year with SAAHA.

Prizes will be afforded with consideration to ;

- Originality
- Teamwork
- List accompanying the coat with the names of the residents who contributed to the project
- Organisation name in inside of the jacket
- Short explanation of who was involved, how long it took, fun you had, etc
- What do you think your jacket is worth and why?

PROCESS

A team will evaluate the jackets and determine the winners – the other jackets will be shown at the SAAHA Summit (Including the winning jackets which each SAAHA Chairperson and the President will sign) and framed.

Each winner will feature under “News” on the SAAHA Website <https://saaaha-care.co.za>
